'Sound Circle' in the Engage gallery space on Main Street will feature an eclectic mix of musical acts, ranging from singer/songwriters and violin soloists, to house music producers.

Each act will have its own dedicated stage which will surround the crowd to create, quite literally, a sound circle. And with the audience at the centre, each performer can follow the last, creating a unique, seamless live music experience for the listener.

Children from the County Longford Youth Service summer camps around the county have been busy all month creating the artworks for the Square on the Square installation.

Watch out for festival menus and deals from The Aubergine, The Black Olive, Torc, Farrell Coy and participating outlets over the weekend
